

Forgetting (PART 1)

Forgetting is gradual, spontaneous and universal process. Forgetting is the opposite direction of memory. It means failure to recall mind an idea or group of idea. In simple language, forgetting is

- To lose facts, knowledge etc.
- Fail to recall
- unable to remember
- fail to do

The concept of forgetting can be explained through following way-

